TADY LURE CO. COLLABORATION

Tady Lures in California has been making the fabled surface iron for over 60 years and not one of them is the same. For generation after generation, there is still no feeling like finding that magical lure that swims just right and out fishes everything in your tackle box.

We have had Tadys in our tackle boxes for years and now we are thrilled to have them featured in this new collaboration and short documentary.

IN BAJA NORTE

Inspired by the rough and rugged coast of Northern Baja. From dawn patrol surf checks to early mornings making bait or cool evenings cracking coldies around the campfire.

LONG RANGE

OUTERWEAR COLLECTION

We are proud to introduce our new jacket & bib outerwear combo. Tough, technical and thoroughly tested by the team.

Delivering top-tier functionality by packing in every feature the crew asked for with no corners cut in the design process. From the 20k waterproof / 20k breathable fabric, to the fully taped internal seams, utility plier pockets and hand warmers.

20K WATERPROOF &
20K BREATHABILITY

MID WEIGHT 2.5 LAYER WITH
DWR COATING

UTILITY POCKET AND LEFT LEG
CARGO POCKET

HAND WARMER POCKETS AT AT BIB OPENING

A person wearing a black hooded jacket and a black cap is standing on the deck of a white boat, reeling in a fishing rod. The background shows a vast, dark blue ocean under a pale sky. The boat's deck has several circular hatch covers. A white ladder is visible on the right side of the boat. The overall scene is dimly lit, suggesting dawn or dusk.
